Mesut Özil: World Cup Golden Boot Leader Mesut Özil is the highest scoring player in the Russia 2018 World Cup and leader in the Golden Boot. Germany's star-studded attack have scored 76 goals with Özil netting 21 goals while completing the set with Thomas Muller on 10. The Arsenal midfielder scored in their 2-2 draw against Mexico in the group stage and took his tally to four in the last game against Panama, where he scored twice. In the knockout stages, it has been Özil who has been at the centre of Arsenal's attacking play, as the 30-year-old found the back of the net in a 2-2 draw against Mexico and 1-1 draw with Sweden. The feat of Özil scoring the most goals in a single World Cup by a German has only been achieved by two other players – Miroslav Klose and Miroslav Šembera. Helping My Clients Help Themselves The Major Motivating Factors When we think of marketing and advertising, we think of the way the ads are placed. People pay to watch ads during a program, or read ads in magazines. That's certainly true, and one of the best forms of advertising that I have ever seen is a billboard on a busy road. It can catch your attention right away. Often, you'll remember it for the rest of the day, or even weeks afterward. So why do we pay to advertise? Obviously, it gives us something to talk about with our friends, or if we're from the right segment of society, it gives us something else to talk about. There are several big motivating factors that kick in when we see an ad and decide to take action. Let's look at the four biggest ones: Image (of what the product / service is) The image advertising conveys has a huge impact on how we feel about a product or service. If the image is attractive, we feel good when we think about it. If the image is unattractive, then we don't really care. Often, we can't really see what the product is until we've seen the ad. The image of the product in
