RNS is a product line of navigation systems used by various car manufacturers. "A" refers to models that use older MB or WAAS satellite systems. The "M" and "D" models refer to the successor to the "A" models, which has been named RNS-M and RNS-D. The "E" models refer to current generation

RNS systems such as those introduced with the new generation VW Touareg in 2013. Models "A" and "E" are versions of the MB- or WAAS satellite systems, while models "M" and "D" are versions of newer WAAS/MBPSS systems. Models "A" and "E" have greater capabilities than models "M" and "D", which are based on the same system but have fewer features and less capability. Navigation Plus rns e.
