0 comments Reputation How much do you think I will be able to play the final legendary weapons once the game launches (if that is the case) Out of all the GWOW players I know, at least half of us manage to rank up every single legendary weapon by playing (mostly) solo (if we play with other people they are usually weak). Some of us even rank up a 10 weapon, if they deem it worthwhile to do so. What has given me the most trouble is the 4th weapon tier. It is very hard to get, you basically need either Brawlers to go and draw out a legendary weapon for you, or you have to grind out some materials for which you don't have enough Karma (aka tick). I am starting to get my final legendary weapon once they reach the level 120 max rank limit, but I am not sure if I will be able to do it while playing with other people or not. How many people manage to get those legendary weapons? And are you confident about the 10 weapon? Also since I will be mostly by myself, how do you guys feel about Legendary weapons? Will you be able to complete the tier system or will you be satisfied to be a ranker of those 4th tier (Brawlers, Caterpalls, Inactive players etc) weapons? Well, I'd play alone basically if I was playing GWOW. I am prepared for the fact that the fun won't be very good, but it'll be just fine

A fantasy RPG developed by Sword Art Online's Megalyn E.K., action elements and a vivid setting on the server brings a feeling of waiting for an event to happen after the start of the game. Throughout this world, you can enjoy and interact with your friends' activities in the same online game, and enjoy several events. Megalyn E.K.'s second game (AQUA KUN, THIEF'S FLIGHT, etc.) Sword Art Online's Megalyn E.K. is the creator of the content, "Megalyn E.K.'s fantasy RPG Aquaria," with a strong fantasy setting and a clear action-adventure story. From the start of this game, fans of E.K.'s Aquaria will be able to experience the series' action-adventure fun. The action part of the game is developed by Tekken's producer Katsuhiro Harada, and the story is written by illustrator Dengeki, novelist Yuyuko Takemiya, and the director of E.K.'s Megalyn E.K.'s Aquaria. The main character is a young man, believed to be a descendant of the "pre-renowned" Elden Ring, also known as the Elden Lords, and is a knight of the noble First Order. This game has a very positive review. While it was expected to be a "fantasy RPG similar to the previous Aquaria," the action-adventure game did not disappoint as much. According to the review, the simulation part and seamless jumps of the previous game were also maintained, with the action being strengthened. "Sword Art Online's Megalyn E.K. releases her fantasy RPG that focuses on strategic PvP battles. Although this game also has a beautiful fantasy setting, but its main focus is on action." Megalyn E.K.'s second RPG This game is very interesting. It is not just a fantasy RPG, but also an action-adventure game. In addition, it is a sword fighting RPG. It is filled with action scenes, and its player controls the main character with a standard-type stick. This game is very interesting. It is not just a fantasy RPG, but also an action-ad

Well, Tarnished we decided to debut at GDC19. At this point, since the game has not been revealed to public, there is no real confirmation on what ELDEN will be. But it is something that will be very cool indeed. This is a Game Jam project we won a few years ago. Were you interested, I hope you will find this game fun. Until next time, -Toru
